Bible Reading for this week:

- ◇ 1 Peter 1:3-12 This passage celebrates the living hope believers have through the resurrection of Jesus, echoing the assurance that Christ is our life even in trials.
- ◇ Romans 6:1-11 Paul shows that all who belong to Christ share in his death and resurrection, Jesus himself is our resurrection and life.
- ◇ 1 Corinthians 15:20-28 These verses proclaim Christ as the risen firstfruits who will destroy the last enemy, death.
- ◇ Hebrews 4:14-16 This text highlights Jesus as our compassionate High Priest who understands our weakness.
- ◇ Ezekiel 37:1-14 The valley of dry bones offers a vivid Old Testament picture of God calling the dead to life through Jesus.

TODAYS SERMON:

Jesus is the resurrection and the life

John 11:17-57

November 23, 2025

Jesus brings life into our hopeless places

Truth: Jesus is the _____ of _____ and true _____, and he calls his people to _____ him in every circumstance.

Application: When circumstances feel final or hopeless, turn to Christ in faith. Bring everything to him and trust the One who brings life where none seems possible. His word and will, not the situation, determine the outcome for his people.

Jesus has empathy with our grief and power over death

Truth: Our Lord draws near to his people in times of _____, and overcomes the greatest _____ that brings such _____.

Application: Bring your pain honestly to Jesus, knowing he understands and ultimately will overcome all that corrupts his creation. Walk in hope, because the Savior who weeps with his people is the same Savior who speaks life into the grave. Trust the Savior, rely on his strength, and let the truth of his victory steady your heart.

Jesus is the one willing to die that his people may live

Truth: No _____ can overturn God's plan. God sent His Son to die in the place of _____ so they might believe and with him _____.

Application: Rest in God's sovereign plan fulfilled in Christ's sacrificial death and resurrection. When overwhelmed by a broken, chaotic and hostile world, remember that the cross was not a defeat but the very means of our salvation. Stand firm in faith, trusting the One who gave Himself to give you life that never ends.
