Announcements

Going deeper - Bible Reading for this week:

- ◊ Joshua 24:2–3 God called Abraham out of an idol-worshiping family and began a work of grace that Abraham could never have initiated himself.
- ◊ Genesis 12:1–3 God's call and promise to Abram reveal where the genealogy is heading: blessing for every family on earth.
- ◊ Romans 4:16–25 Abraham trusted the God who gives life where human circumstances offer no hope.
- ◊ Hebrews 11:8–12 Abraham and Sarah lived by faith, depending on God to accomplish what seemed humanly impossible.
- ◊ Colossians 1:15–23 Jesus is the perfect image of God and the promised Savior through whom God reconciles a people to himself.

RBC GROUPS
Know. Grow. Belong.

RBC groups begin this week! Sign-up for a group in the bookstore!

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT NNO 2026

National Night Out community outreach—see Shorty and Jennifer to help!

Cost is $110 per person with a $50 deposit. Sign-up today!

Gather items to donate to the church garage sale! See Kay or Loretta for info.

We're looking for volunteers to help with our Sunday morning slides and livestream rotation. If you're comfortable with word processing, you can learn to run the slides; if you have video production skills, you can help with the livestream. Both roles are important ways to serve our church family and help others clearly hear the message of God's Word. - See Ron or Steven

TODAYS SERMON:

When the Future Looks Impossible

September 13, 2026

Genesis 11:10-32

God's faithfulness reaches across generations (v. 10-26)

Truth: God faithfully carries his _____ forward from one _____ to the next.

God graciously draws us to faith (v. 27-31)

Truth: God's _____ can reach into any family and call _____ to faith.

God's promises do not depend on human ability (v. 30-32)

Truth: God's promises rest on _____ faithfulness, not our _____.

Summary Application: When the future looks impossible, trust the God who graciously draws us to faith and faithfully carries out his promises. His plan leads us to Jesus, and in him our hope is secure.
